An Australia which embraces disabled or disadvantaged people, so they feel optimistic about their lives and are recognised by society as equals.

WHO WE ARE

Making Waves Foundation has been bringing about positive change in the lives of disabled and disadvantaged Australians for over 25 years.

With no Government funding, we are totally reliant on donations and fundraising events to continue to offer sailing programs to the community at no charge.

Our programs use sailing as a tool to gain confidence and self-esteem, build new relationships and develop team skills. We help people meet life's challenges with determination and optimism.

Through sailing we focus on the opportunities of life to build an optimistic and inclusive future.
